I have been personally involved with improvement activities at Immanuel College since 2011, becoming an associate governor in 2013.

I was a senior partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) prior to my retirement in 2016, where I led the Risk Assurance practice for the North. I am an experienced facilitator and mentor with expertise in organisational development and change management.

I serve as a trustee on the Board of BDAT. I live in Yorkshire with my wife and 2 daughters.
