

Shuna Hartley

SIAMS Monitoring Governor

(formerly called a Foundation
Governor)

This page last updated on 14/09/2016

I was originally appointed a Foundation Parent Governor in 2004, when my younger daughter first started at Immanuel. All my children have now left school, but I continue as a governor because I am passionate about supporting Immanuel as it seeks to enable local young people to achieve their potential in all areas of their lives.

I am particularly interested in the continued improvement of student achievement and in improving communication between all members of the Immanuel family.

I am married to a local vicar. We have 4 children (2 with severe learning disabilities, who attended local special schools) and 3 grandchildren.

I volunteer at Bradford North Foodbank, where I am the project manager.