Describe:

Create a picture or a visual image for your reader – be creative and ambitious with vocabulary choices, punctuation and paragraphing.

Maintain past or present tense throughout – do not mix them up.

Zoom in and out on particular areas you want to describe. Go from the general to the specific.

Start sentences with:

- A short or one word sentence
- A sense (sound/smell/ touch/ sight/ taste)
- Adverb ('ly' word)
- A complex sentence/ Subordinate clause
- A preposition (above, opposite, under, over)
- A subordinate clause
- 'ed' or 'ing' word

Narrative/story writing:

Write the opening of a story or write a full story.

- Show- don't tell.
- Imagery – similes, metaphors, personification, pathetic fallacy
- Character development
- Dialogue – how people speak.
- Control when the reader is given information.
- Keep your narrative perspective the same (1st or 3rd person)
