

Dear Parent/Carer,

As we reach the end of this unusual and challenging half term, we would like to take the opportunity to sincerely thank you for your continued support and encouragement. As you are aware, the move to remote learning, except for vulnerable children and those of critical workers, on 5th January was not expected and the resilience and determination shown by parents and other adults supporting our students with their remote learning has been greatly appreciated.

We are extremely pleased that the vast majority of our students have engaged well and persisted with their remote learning over the past weeks, in no small part due to the ongoing support they have received from parents and other relatives who have been encouraging and supporting them on a daily basis.

We hope that you, as well as our students, have felt supported over the past weeks through the regular telephone and email contact with form tutors and other members of the pastoral team, as well as through having the ability to contact teachers directly by email and having other specific points of contact when issues have arisen. If you have any positive feedback regarding the support you or your child has received during this past half term we would love to hear from you; please send your comments, along with your child's name, to emma.sey@immanuel.blnsch.co.uk so they can be shared with our staff.

As we continue to await definitive information regarding when schools will re-open fully, we hope you have a safe and restful half term break. School will be fully closed to all students during half term and we will resume our remote learning and support programme, and face to face teaching for those vulnerable and critical worker students who have already been allocated a place, from Monday 22nd February.

We hope you have a safe and enjoyable half term break and once again thank you for your continued support and encouragement.

As always, if there is anything we can do to support your child further, please contact us at school.

Stay safe,
Immanuel College
